

ADHD Revisit Form:

What is new and good? _____

How are things in general?

Questions or concerns

Meds    stable                 needs it                 can decrease                 needs increase                 to adjust

Parent/teacher comments -                 Home                                 school

Tasks completion -    good    improving                 poor    needs reminders

Sleep - when to when                                 and how many hours?

Energy --                 high    good    low    sleepy

Moods -                 normal                 moody                 sad                 angry                 aggressive

Clarity of thought and mind _____

HW    no problems    better    slow    fast    crying    forgetful                 hates hw

Grades-                 excellent                 good    improving                 poor    failing

ISS/referrals

Behavior                 excellent                 good    improving                 needs help

Any change in eating habits?

Appetite -                 normal                 decreased                 increased                 cravings                 binges

Drinks                 juice                         milk    kool-aid/gatorate                 water only

Any weight changes                         no change                 loss    gain

How is the discipline going

Able to read books by self